Prepare bingo cards. 2. Give one card to each player. 3. Call off words randomly, for example by using a call list. You can either just say a word, like "mom", or you can make up a more involved clue involving mom. 4. When a word is called, each player should find it and mark it. 5. The first player(s) to clear five words in any direction (horizontal, vertical, or diagonal) wins a small prize.
